

Sunday January 17

Woodley Park News

Artist and 27 Street neighbor Sheila Harrington has added a daily sketchbook-calendar, called Each Day Is a Celebration, to her website (www.sheilaharrington.org). Click here to take a look.

Remember the ivy clearing (cutting and pulling) on Monday, January 18 (the Martin Luther King National Day of Service), from 10 am until noon. The group will meet at rear parking lot of the Embassy of Belgium, 3330 Garfield Street. Contact them with questions or to let them know if you can join them.

If you've never visited the WPCA website (www.wpcaonline.org), you've missed a source of neighborhood information. Looking back, there's a history of Woodley Park, going back to 1890 when the area was mainly large estates a mile outside the city limits. Looking ahead, there are descriptions of plans for new construction in the neighborhood and of the National Zoo's ideas for the long term. Woodley Park is an historic district, and you can read a description of it published by the DC Historic Preservation Office as well as the design guidelines for the historic district. The website has back issues of our print newsletter, The Acorn, and these emails. There's also a calendar for information about neighborhood activities — send us anything you want included. And, of course, let us know what else you'd like to see on the website of your neighborhood association.

CALENDAR

The WPCA Executive Committee usually meets on the first Wednesday of the month; however, the next meeting will be at 7:30 pm on Wednesday January 20 at All Souls Episcopal Church, 2300 Cathedral Ave (use the Woodley Pl. entrance). A draft agenda should be posted on the website a few days before the meeting. All are welcome.

John Goodman
Past pres., WPCA
For more information, visit <http://www.wpcaonline.org/>

© Woodley Park Community Association