

Sunday September 5

Woodley Park News

Giant Food President Robin Michel invites you to join Mayor Fenty, Council Chair Gray and Councilmembers Cheh and Kwame Brown to introduce plans for the new Wisconsin Avenue Giant (plus food and other festivities) on Thursday September 9 at 2 pm, 3336 Wisconsin Avenue.

The annual Cathedral Ave/Woodley Place Alley Sale will be held on Saturday October 2 in the alley between the 2700 block of Woodley Place and the 2200 block of Cathedral Ave, from 9 to whenever. Access off Woodley Road or behind the farmer's market. If neighbors from other parts of Woodley Park want to join in, they might be able to find a place for you to set up. For more information, contact Judy Shapiro.

The US Capitol Historical Society has announced a series of free September events. Subjects include Massachusetts Avenue in the Gilded Age and The Story of Labor in America. Check their website for more information.

WPCA is looking for ideas for Fall or Winter events for the community. We have the Spring picnic and have done historical tours and house tours in the past. If there's something you'd like us to do, let us know.

Information about the status of the development project at 2910 Garfield St is available on our website.

CALENDAR

The WPCA Executive Committee usually meets on the first Wednesday of the month; however, the next meeting will be on Thursday September 9, 7:30 pm, at All Souls Church (use the Woodley Place entrance).
