Woodley Park News

Some items on crime and safety, which are especially relevant in light of the recent robberies and burglaries in the neighborhood:

Chief of Police Cathy Lanier will address the question “How Safe is Your Neighborhood?” at the DC Federation of Citizens Associations' January meeting, Tuesday January 24th, 6:45 pm, at All Souls Church, 2300 Cathedral Avenue. All are welcome.

At a meeting last week on the crime situation in NW, MPD stressed that people who see something suspicious should call 911 and report it — don't worry that you might be overreacting. Then, after calling 911, you can call the watch commander hotline at (202) 438-4421.

WPCA has organized a neighborhood watch program for Woodley Park. You can read about it on the website. If you want more information or would like to take part as a block captain, contact Nour Jurgenson.

On a more positive note — You can help save the trees on Shoreham Hill (just southeast of the Shoreham Hotel) from English ivy. Monday January 16th from 10 am to 1 pm. More info on the Rock Creek Conservancy website.

If you're looking for a place to volunteer on Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service, you can find a list of projects here.

Calendar

The next meeting of the WPCA Executive Committee is Wednesday February 1st at Stanford starting at 7:30. The agenda will be on the website a few days before the meeting.
