Woodley Park News

WPCA's Spring meeting will be Wednesday April 5 at 7:30 pm at Stanford. There will be three presentations. National Zoo Director Dennis Kelly will discuss upcoming capital improvements. The new owner of 2607 Connecticut Ave will describe his plans to convert the building to residential and extend it back toward the alley. At-large CM Elissa Silverman will discuss current District governmental activities.

The current show at the Stanford art gallery is Jack Boul at 90, featuring work by the DC artist. The show runs through July.

JBG reports that it has identified a buyer (unnamed) for the Marriott hotel property. Due diligence is underway, the deal is not final.

DC's RiverSmart Homes program helps reduce stormwater runoff that harms the District's waterways and the Chesapeake Bay by providing financial incentives to help property owners install green infrastructure such as rain barrels, green roofs, rain gardens, permeable pavers, shade trees and more. If you're interested in seeing some results of this program, you should attend DDoE's Garden Party Tour on Sunday April 2 at 2 pm. It starts at 5191 Linnean Terr. and will proceed from there.
