Woodley Park News

One of the items on the agenda of WPCA's Fall meeting (tentatively scheduled for November 7) is the election of officers and at-large Board members. All four officer positions (president, vice president, secretary and treasurer) will be up for election, as will three of the six other board seats. At its last meeting, the Board appointed Peter Brusoe, Bill Kummings and me to the Nominations Committee for this election. Please contact any one of us if you are interested in one of these positions or want additional information.

The Woodley Park picnic did, in fact, happen on September 8, despite earlier showers and overcast skies. Thanks to all who volunteered and to Lebanese Taverna, Medaterra, Nando's, Rajaji and Cafe Sorisso for donated food and to Ace Hardware for the popcorn machine. Special thanks to David Ensign and Deb Freis who saw it through two previous cancellations to (finally) pull it off.

The DC Preservation League is sponsoring a Historic Preservation Community Day next Saturday, September 22, at All Souls Church in Adams Morgan. More info here.

A member has asked us to let you know about special Smithsonian programs for persons with dementia and their care partners. There are several of these programs every month. Information about the fall schedule is on the website. Space is limited and registration is required.

On Saturday September 29, bird expert Jim Nelson will lead an early-morning walk to observe and learn about the birds of Tregaron. More info and registration (required) here.

Two surveys from folks who want to hear from you:

DC Urban Forestry is developing its master plan to guide management of the urban forest to sustain livable communities and public space. You can provide your input here.

Iona Senior Services has received funding from the DC Office on Aging to expand wellness and recreational programming in Wards 2 and 3. You can tell it what you would like to see offered here.

Calendar

Tuesday October 2, 7:30 pm at Stanford. WPCA Executive Committee meeting. The agenda should be on the website a few days before the meeting. All are welcome.
