Woodley Park News

The National Zoo has renewed its efforts to eliminate some entrances to the Zoo and to beef up the fencing around it. The entrance from the Park near the Amazonia exhibit is one that is slated for elimination. The Zoo will ask the National Capital Planning Commission to approve its plans at a hearing on March 7. A synopsis of its proposal is on the WPCA website and the full submission on NCPC's. You can comment on the proposal here.

The next WPCA Meet-Your-Neighbors Happy Hour will be on Tuesday May 12 from 6 to 8 pm at Open City. RSVP here.

Free rides on the Circulator have been extended through March 31.

Save the date: The big sale in the alley between the 2200 block of Cathedral Ave and the 2700 block of Woodley Pl. The morning of Saturday April 6. Details to follow.

Tregaron has posted a some new events on its calendar web page.

It looks like the opening of the Woodley Park residents' art show at the Stanford gallery will be delayed at least until late May. If you live in the neighborhood and want to participate, I'll provide you with additional info.
