WPCA elections will take place at the October 16 general meeting (7 pm at Stanford). If you want to get more involved in your neighborhood, one good way to do it is to get more involved in your neighborhood association. The terms of all four officers (president, VP, secretary and treasurer) and three at-large Board members expire with the upcoming elections. Barbara Ioanes, Bill Kummings and Melissa Maxman are the Nominations Committee for these elections. It is their job to collect the names of people interested in running (and those nominated by others), verify their eligibility and report the names of all the candidates to the Executive Committee. If you want more information about the elections or the various positions, you can ask Barbara, Bill or Melissa, let me know or contact any other member of the Executive Committee.

Also at the meeting, WPCA members will be asked to vote to approve amendments to the Association's bylaws that are recommended by the Executive Committee. A redlined version of the bylaws, showing the amendments, and a summary of the proposals are on the website. Feel free to share any thoughts on the proposals before the meeting. In addition, if there are any other changes you think should be made, please let us know by September 23, so the Board can consider them at its October 1 meeting.

Finally, the meeting will feature CM Mary Cheh and Zoo Director Steven Monfort. All are welcome.

A Reminder. The Woodley Park residents art show will open at the Stanford gallery on October 17. Let me know if you're interested in participating if you haven't done so already.
