Woodley Park News

WPCA Fall Meeting. Wednesday October 16, 7 pm at Stanford. All are welcome.

The meeting will feature CM Mary Cheh and National Zoo Director Steven Monfort.

Board elections. Candidates are --

President: Peter Brusoe and Courtney Tolbert

Secretary: Warren Gorlick

Treasurer: Stephanie Zobay

Three at-large members: John Goodman, Katie MacFarlane and Jeff Myers

There is no candidate for Vice President.

We asked the two candidates for President to prepare short statements about why they want the office. Peter's statement is here, and Courtney's here.

Also at the meeting, WPCA members will be asked to vote to approve amendments to the Association's bylaws that are recommended by the Executive Committee. A redlined version of the bylaws, showing the amendments, and a summary of the proposals are on the website. Feel free to share any thoughts on the proposals before the meeting.

The opening reception for Artists of Woodley Park will be on Thursday October 17 at Stanford from 6:30 to 8 pm. RSVP to Robin Willscheidt by October 14.

The National Zoo held the first meeting of its Neighborhood Council in September. You can read the minutes here. Also on that page is a link to the Zoo's latest perimeter fencing proposal, which it will present to the Council of Fine Arts on October 17.

Mark Ohnmacht, the ED of the Cleveland & Woodley Park Village, will be leaving the organization in January, and the Village has started a search for his replacement. If you're interested, you can find details on the Village website.

October 15th Tuesday Talk at the Cleveland Park Library has been cancelled.

Calendar
