Woodley Park News

WPCA will hold its first virtual meet-your-neighbors night next week. The program will open with a few remarks from CM Mary Cheh. She will be followed by a trivia contest. Participants will need to have one question from three of these categories: music, art, Washington, DC, US presidents, famous immigrants, movies and wildcard. District Kitchen is offering a 20% discount on take-out food for this event if you order by June 9. Wednesday June 10, 7 pm online or at 804.294.0066. Any questions, contact Trivia Maestro.

CP Library talks are going online too. The next talk will feature Woodley Park resident William Causey discuss his new book John Houbolt: The Unsung Hero of the Apollo Moon Landings. Tuesday June 16 at 7 pm. Zoom registration here. The talk will also be livestreamed here.

If you missed the Library's recent presentation on Where The Environment and Politics Intersect with Juliet Eilperin, interviewed by Charles Fishman, you can watch it on the DCPL You-Tube Channel.

The National Zoo is planning to restore the historic Reptile Discovery Center and update the animal habitats and exhibits. They are in the first phase of the project to remove and restore the sculptural portico entrance and welcome your input. You can read more about the history and significance of the project on their website. Please send any comments by June 26.
