Woodley Park News

2735 Connecticut Ave. The owner of this rowhouse wants to tack an addition onto the rear of the existing building. The resulting building would be roughly twice as deep as the current one, and the rear addition would be 20 feet taller than the existing structure in front. The renovated building would contain four two-bedroom and four one-bedroom units. The proposal complies with zoning regulations, but needs historic preservation approval. A copy of the plans are on the website.

It's not too late to be counted. Only about 70% of Woodley Park residents have been. Respond to the 2020 census here.

DC Facilities and Commemorative Expressions Working Group. The Mayor has established DCFACES to evaluate "named DC Government-owned facilities and make recommendations as to what, if any, actions need to be taken if the person the facility is named for is inconsistent with DC values." There is an online survey through which you can share your ideas. There will be a TeleTownHall at 5 pm on Wednesday August 19 to hear an update from the Working Group and share your thoughts; registration for the Town Hall is here.
