Save the Date. DC AG Karl Racine will speak at WPCA's virtual fall meeting, Tuesday November 10 at 7 pm.

Whither Marriott Wardman Park Hotel? The hotel is owned by a limited liability corporation; Marriott operates the hotel under a contract with the LLC. The LLC is 80% owned by an affiliate of PaLife; a JBG affiliate owns the other 20%. The PaLife entity recently petitioned the court to dissolve the LLC, citing the owners' inability to agree on a path forward. The petition also asks the court to appoint a trustee or receiver to wind up the LLC. You can read about the case here and get a copy of the petition on the website.

The Tuesday Talks sessions at the Library resume, virtually, this month. The September talk will center on the work of artist and long-time neighbor Bill Christenberry. Tuesday September 22 at 7 pm. More information about this and future talks here.

DDoT gave WPCA members a status report on its Connecticut Ave corridor study in late July. A copy of the presentation is on the website. At that point, DDoT had not done the traffic engineering analyses to estimate the quality-of-service effects of the various options. If you have any comments on the options being considered, you can send them directly to the project team; please also let me know, so your thoughts can be taken into account as WPCA develops its position. You should also advise Lee Brian Reba, an ANC commissioner from Woodley Park and member of the Community Advisory Committee for this study, of any thoughts you have.
