

Sunday February 28

Woodley Park News

Available on the website –

Video of DDoT's presentation on its Connecticut Ave study

Slides from DDoT's presentation on its Connecticut Ave study

Video of presentation concerning the redevelopment of 2735 Connecticut Ave

The latest report from the Swiss Embassy on its construction project

WMATA is once again proposing draconian service cuts for FY22. Proposals include closing the Cleveland Park Metro station (and 21 others) for all of FY22; eliminating L2 bus service in 2H FY22 and replacing some of it with a reconfigured H2/H4. Details and comment opportunities here.

Woodley House is a neighborhood mental health recovery program that provides housing and services for men and women in various stages of recovery. It is conducting a Spring food and supplies drive to support its work in the community. Details on the drive and what's needed are here. Donated items can be dropped off on March 6 from 10 am to 2 pm in the alley behind 2711 Connecticut Ave.

If you missed the talk on the family of red-shouldered hawks living near the Klinge Valley Bridge, it's now available online.

Calendar

Tuesday March 2, 7:30. WPCA Executive Committee Meeting. The agenda should be on the website a few days before the meeting. All are welcome via Zoom, just click here.

John Goodman
WPCA

For more information, visit <https://www.wpcaonline.org/>

© Woodley Park Community Association