Woodley Park News

WPCA Fall Meeting and Board elections. The meeting will be Thursday November 16 at 7:30 pm via Zoom. Featured speakers will be National Zoo Deputy Director Steph Brinley and others from the operations staff to tell us what's happening at the Zoo.

Also at the meeting will be elections for seats on the WPCA Board. The terms of all four officers (president, VP, secretary and treasurer) and three at-large Board members are expiring with the elections. Glenn Marcus, Leah De Hoet and Zach Messitte are the Nominations Committee for these elections. It is the Committee's job to collect the names of people interested in running (and those nominated by others), verify their eligibility and report the names of all the candidates to the Executive Committee. If you want more information about the elections or the various positions, you can ask a Nominations Committee member or any other member of the Executive Committee.

Wardman Park development. The project website reports that the ongoing foundation work should be completed by the end of the year. Construction of the buildings would then begin, expected to be completed in 2026, though other reports I have heard from the owner suggest completion in 2025. The owner's description of the project is on the WPCA website.

Tuesday Talk. The next talk features David Maraniss, an associate editor at The Post, discussing his new book about James Francis Thorpe, a member of the Sac and Fox Nation, who is in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, played baseball for the NY Giants and won gold medals at the 1912 Summer Olympics. Tuesday November 14, 7 pm at the CP Library. Seating is limited, so register early.
