Woodley Park News

Good News! The Deputy Mayor for Education has decided not to recommend a change in the Oyster Adams boundary. Slide 15 here tells you the plan.

The WPCA Board is looking at improving and updating its website. If you have an interest – and, better yet, some experience or expertise -- please let Leah De Hoet know.

The Swiss Embassy sponsors a variety of events, some at the Embassy and some elsewhere. You can sign-up for email notices here.

Woodley Park Card Night. There will be two tables for bridge (beginner and more experienced), as well as tables for hearts and spades. Tables will be organized at the beginning of the night, and extra players will be rotated in so all can get a chance to play. Feel free to bring a board game if that's your preference. Thursday March 21 from 6:30 to 8:30 (late arrivals welcome) at St Thomas Church (entrance on 27th St). Send questions and RSVPs indicating choice of game here.

Springtime means there's lots going on at Tregaron, including bird walks, an Easter egg hunt and opera. See what's happening on its calendar.

Tuesday Talk. The next talk features Dennis Romano, an emeritus professor of history at Syracuse University, discussing his most recent work, Venice: The Remarkable History of the Lagoon City and that city's four ages of water, as water has evolved in Venetian minds from a benefit to a problem to be solved, from an obstacle to be overcome to an existential threat. Tuesday February 19, 7 pm at the CP Library. Seating is limited, so register early.

The Cathedral Avenue-Woodley Place Neighborhood Alley Sale will return on Saturday April 6 from around 9 to whenever, between the 2200 block of Cathedral Ave and the 2700 block of Woodley Pl. Questions, contact Judy Shapiro.

Calendar

Tuesday March 12 7:30. WPCA Executive Committee Meeting. The agenda should be on the website a few days before the meeting. All are welcome via Zoom, just click here.
