Woodley Park News

JBG. On Friday, JBG filed two planned unit development applications relating to the Marriott property. They will be available once the Office of Zoning has accepted them as meeting the procedural requirements of the zoning rules. The applications will then be referred to the Office of Planning for substantive review.

JBG released slides that describe its applications. The proposal is similar to what JBG showed us at the meeting in April. The slides are on the JBG-Marriott page on the website. The applications will be posted there when they are available.

In April, the WPCA Executive Committee voted unanimously to oppose these applications. Now that they have been filed, we are looking for volunteers to join our Planning & Zoning Committee to work on that opposition. Let me know if you're interested.

These filings are just the start of a long process. The Zoning Commission has not decided that the applications are worthy of its consideration. It won't make that decision until September at the very earliest. JBG might well amend its applications before the ZC considers whether to hear them -- the Georgetown Day application will have been amended at least twice before the ZC considers whether to hear it at all. There is no urgency to sending letters opposing what JBG wants to do; the ZC won't even look at them until after it decides that it will consider the application.

JBG's latest Wardman Tower construction update is on the website.

Notes from the last community meeting on the Cleveland Park Library are on the website.

At the WPCA Spring meeting earlier this month, Melissa Maxman, Jessica Wasserman and I were elected to fill vacancies on the Board. The proposed changes to WPCA's bylaws concerning term limits were not adopted.

Also at that meeting, WPCA established a Bylaws Committee (to review the existing bylaws and consider whether anything should be changed) and a Membership Committee (to recommend a plan to bolster WPCA's membership). Contact Peter Brusoe if you're interesting in being on either.

At that meeting, some members asked how they could sign up to receive HPRB notices and agenda. At the bottom of the HPRB public notice page is the sentence "To be included on the distribution list for this monthly public notice and other HPRB hearing information, please sign up here." Just click on the word "here" to sign up.

Calendar

Wednesday July 13, 7:30 pm. WPCA Executive Committee meeting at Stanford. The agenda should be on the website a few days before the meeting. All are welcome.
