Last week, WPCA representatives met with the Office of Planning to discuss our opposition to JBG's PUD applications, in particular why we believe that OP should recommend that the Zoning Commission not even schedule them for public hearings. A paper outlining these arguments, and another containing WPCA's position on the applications, are on the JBG-Marriott page on the WPCA website.

JBG will unveil modifications to its PUD applications at 7 pm on Thursday September 22 in the Hampton Room at the Omni Shoreham.

The owner of 2632 Garfield St. (which is in the historic district) is asking for permission to build a large addition on the rear of the house. A copy of the proposal is on the website, though we understand that changes might be made to it. At its meeting next week, the WPCA Board will consider whether to oppose this application at HPRB.

The CP Historical Society will hold a free workshop on energy efficiency and old homes on Saturday September 24, 2 to 4 pm at the Cleveland Park Congregational Church (3400 Lowell St.). Register here.
