

Tuesday October 1

Woodley Park News

WPCA's next Meet-Your-Neighbors Happy Hour will be Monday October 7, 6 to 8 pm, at Open City, 2331 Calvert St. RSVP here.

Woodley Park Bridge Night. Come join us for an evening of bridge. Tables will be organized at the beginning of the night and extra players will be rotated so all get a chance to play. Beginners as well as experienced players are welcome. Thursday October 17 from 6:30 to 8:30 pm at St Thomas Apostle Catholic Church. Use the side door entrance on 27th street, opposite the fire hydrant. Send questions and RSVPs here.

Dealing with Historic Windows. Much of Woodley Park is part of a historic district, which means that you need approval to make changes to the exteriors of your homes. Two historic preservation groups are presenting a panel discussion about repairing vs. replacing windows, historic compatibility considerations, options for materials and energy efficiency levels and permit application requirements. More information and required registration here. Wednesday October 16, 6:30 at the Cleveland Park Library.

Tregaron Unplugged. Washington Performing Arts returns to Tregaron on Saturday October 5 from 3 to 5 pm, for a free-of-charge, multi-genre, multi-musician event. Required registration here.

Tuesday Talk. The next talk features broadcast journalist Susan Stamberg, one of The Founding Mothers of National Public Radio, who was the first woman to anchor a national nightly news program and served as co-host of the award-winning All Things Considered for 14 years before hosting Weekend Edition Sunday. Tuesday October 15, 7 pm at the CP Library. Seating is limited, so register early.

Calendar
